

Strategic Plan Development ^[1]

Fulfilling CU's Mission

Between the summer of 2019 and the spring of 2021, the University of Colorado (CU) conducted a collaborative and inclusive strategic planning process to identify common themes that would help guide the university for the next five years and beyond. Priorities identified collectively by stakeholders involved throughout the process will advance CU's Mission.

The CU system strategic plan is a high level plan that aligns all elements of governance (regents, system and campuses) to achieve a focused set of goals that are essential to fulfilling the university's mission. The system plan does not replicate or replace campus strategic plans, but is achieved through them. CU's strategic plan elevates and makes the case for CU with the state and shines light on its successes and needs.

"The University of Colorado is a public research university with multiple campuses serving Colorado, the nation, and the world through leadership in high-quality education and professional training, public service, advancing research and knowledge, and state-of-the-art health care."

Engagement & Process Timeline

The strategic planning process was guided by input from the Board of Regents, faculty, students, staff, chancellors, trustees and the broader CU community.

Throughout the four-phase process the strategic planning committee met with approximately 600 stakeholders in over 80 meetings throughout the system and community.

The Road Ahead

The Innovating for the Future strategic plan will:

- Detail actionable, measurable steps that will allow CU to continue to meet its mission and serve its students and the state.
- Provide a roadmap that will guide the university as it emerges from the pandemic and confronts the challenges of the coming five years.
- Complement campus strategic planning efforts and actions.
- Be a bridge that will offer continuity among the current administration, interim administration and next administration.
